Default

- 15. If:

 - e. you continue any other default for 8 working days after the posting of any notice of that default to you (or 5 working days if such notice is sent by electronic means), it will be a default under this agreement and the lender may accelerate repayment of the loan and require you to pay the money secured to the lender forthwith. The lender may call up that money even although the time for payment has not yet been reached.

- 16. If you are in financial default (but subject to sections 40(2A) and (2B) of the CCCFA) you shall pay to the lender default interest on the due but unpaid amount from the date you fell into financial default until you are no longer in financial default. Default interest shall compound _____. This is further described in the "DEFAULT INTEREST CHARGES AND DEFAULT FEES" section of the disclosure statement.
- 17. If you fail to do anything which you must do or do anything you must not do, the lender may do or pay anything to remedy the default and may add that cost to the money secured and if you do not pay the cost of such remedy on demand, you will be in financial default and the lender may charge you default interest on the due but unpaid amount. The lender may take any such action in your name or otherwise.
- 18. Subject to the lender's statutory obligation to disclose and notwithstanding anything else in this agreement, it is your responsibility to ascertain from the lender the amount of any default interest and default fee or credit fees incurred by you from time to time and to pay them.

Commission

- 20. The lender may receive commission on any insurance or repayment waiver included in this agreement or subsequently arranged.

Appropriation of Payments

- 21. The lender may appropriate any payment received from you or money which is proceeds of the sale of any collateral or land against any debt secured by that collateral in any manner that the lender may reasonably decide, notwithstanding any appropriation you claim to have made.

Early Full Repayment

- 22. In accordance with section 50 of the CCCFA you may repay the money secured in full before it is due. However, you must also pay the lender the administrative costs arising from the full prepayment. The lender may also charge you a fee representing a reasonable estimate of its loss arising from the full prepayment. The lender may be required to deduct from the amount required for full prepayment a proportionate rebate in respect of any relevant credit-related insurance or repayment waiver. The lender's method of calculating its loss is set out in the "FULL PREPAYMENT" section of the disclosure statement.
- 23. If the lender accepts any payment or banks any cheque, which you have made or forwarded in purported full settlement of the money secured or in terms connoting any accord and satisfaction, the lender will not be deemed by such acceptance or banking to have accepted the terms upon which the payment is made or the cheque is forwarded unless the lender has, before it receives the payment or cheque, agreed in writing to accept the amount in full settlement or otherwise as an accord and satisfaction.

Undertakings

- 24. You must maintain a landline or cellular telephone connection or subscription. If for any reason we are unable to speak to you directly at the latest telephone number provided by you (whether landline or cellular), you authorise us to advise any person who answers any telephone number we have for you who we are, that we are trying to communicate with you and that we wish you to contact us and to leave messages with that person.
- 25. You must not change your name, physical or email address or your landline or cellular telephone number without first giving the lender five working days written notice of your intention to do so and of the replacement name, address or landline or cellular telephone number. The lender may write to you at the last address provided by you to us.

Amendments & Waivers

- 26. Except as described in clause 276 below, no amendment to this agreement shall have any effect unless in writing and signed by a manager of the lender. The lender may exercise all or any right, power or remedy at any time and failure to do or delay in doing so shall not constitute a waiver unless the lender grants it in writing and a continuous breach shall only be waived if the lender specifies that the waiver is continuous. Waiver of one right power or remedy is not waiver of another.
- 27. The lender can at any time (without your prior agreement) change the amount, frequency, time for payment, or method of calculation of any fee or charge payable under this agreement, by giving you notice as required by law.

Security & Interest In Collateral

- 28. You must store any collateral which is goods at the address shown as that of its owner in the disclosure statement or at the most recent address provided by you under in clause 24 and in any event you may not move any collateral goods from one address to another while you are in default without the written consent of the lender. You must not allow any collateral goods to be stored elsewhere nor any collateral to be taken out of New Zealand. You must also care for and maintain collateral in good saleable condition and comply with any laws relating to its ownership and use and you must not use it in any dangerous or illegal activity or for any purpose for which it was not intended. If any collateral is a motor vehicle you must additionally repair damage to panels, bumper lights, windows and other exterior and interior surfaces and to paint work when such damage occurs and must ensure that the vehicle is at all times registered and not only has a warrant of fitness but is in a condition that will enable a warrant of fitness to be issued for it. You may not use any collateral motor vehicle or motor boat for motor sport activity such as (without limitation) racing, rallying, speed or time trials or (and in particular) so that any driver or owner of a collateral motor vehicle receives a written caution under section 129B of the Sentencing Act 2002. The lender may inspect any collateral on giving 24 hours written notice and you shall make such collateral available for inspection at the address that you have provided as the place where the owner lives. The lender need not give notice if the collateral is at risk as defined in section 83E of the CCCFA and its employees or agents may enter any place where it believes the goods may be to look for and inspect them. In doing so the lender's employees or agents are your agents.

- 29. If you obtain consumer goods in future and those consumer goods are replacements for consumer goods specifically identified in this agreement as collateral, you must appropriate those goods to the lender's security interest and must provide any serial numbers for those goods as may be necessary to enable or assist registration.
- 30. You must not do anything or allow anything to happen which may impair, challenge or undermine any borrower's ownership of collateral or the lender's security interest in collateral. Further you must not grant any other security interest over collateral nor allow any lien to be created over it nor dispose of nor allow the disposal of collateral by sale or gift or lease or in any other way nor cause nor allow collateral to be taken out of the possession of the borrower who owns it, nor destroyed, damaged, endangered, disassembled, removed from the place where you are required to keep it nor concealed from the lender. You must not obtain any personalised registration plate on any collateral motor vehicle nor otherwise alter or remove any collateral serial number unless you first obtain the lender's consent in writing. In any event, if any of these acts or omissions occur, you must immediately advise the lender in writing.
- 31. Any accessions (including replacements and accessories) which are attached to collateral goods shall become part of the collateral. This includes the borrower's interest in any personalised motor vehicle registration plates.
- 32. The lender may take possession of the collateral for the purposes of perfecting its security interest under the PPSA.
- 33. You must insure or procure the insurance of the collateral or the property belonging to any land shown in this agreement to its full insurable value (in the case of buildings or improvements for full replacement value if possible) and keep them insured against fire, accident, theft, flood and storm (and any other risks as the lender may require) both in the names of the lender and in the names of the owners for the lender's and the owners' respective interests, all payments, in the event of a claim, to be made to the lender (and the lender will account to you for any amount received by it in excess of the money secured or otherwise payable by you). You must not do or allow any act or omission which causes the insurance to be invalidated or cancelled or which may cause the insurer to refuse payment. You must provide premium receipts and an insurance company certificate of the insurance if required by the lender. If the lender so requires insurance must be taken out with a company nominated by it. The lender may apply the proceeds in repayment of the money secured even though it has not yet fallen due.

- 34. You must not use any collateral or land for any criminal purpose including, without limitation, the commission of an offence under the Misuse of Drugs Act 1975 or any replacement Act.
- 35. To the maximum extent permitted by law, You indemnify the lender and will keep it indemnified against any claim from any person relating to any collateral or land or the use thereof. If the lender incurs any loss, liability or expense in respect of any collateral or land or this agreement as a result of any act or omission of yours then the amount of such loss, liability or expense plus goods and services tax if any shall be added to the money secured and payable by you to the lender on demand.
- 36. This agreement secures future advances. This will apply even although any sum has been paid from time to time to the lender or any account between the borrowers and the lender may be or have been in credit or settled.
- 37. The lender shall not be obliged to marshal in your favour or in favour of any other person.
- 38. You waive your right to receive a verification statement following registration of any security interest and if any of the collateral is not consumer goods, none of sections 133 or 134 of the PPSA will apply to any dealings with that collateral under this agreement and you waive any rights with respect to that collateral under sections 116, 120(2), 121, 125 (if the debtor is in possession), 127, 129 and 131 of the PPSA.

Assignment

- 39. The lender may assign its right, title and interest in any collateral or land and its right, title and interest in this agreement or any of them at any time, provided such assignment is not likely to cause you detriment. You have no such right.

Reposition

- 40. This clause 40 is subject to all mandatory requirements of law (including, where applicable, Part 3A of the CCCFA). Subject to clause 15 hereof as to acceleration of payment of the money secured, if you default under this agreement the lender may, without notice save that required by statute, seize the collateral and for such purposes you irrevocably give to the lender the right and licence for its agents to enter any premises and if necessary to break into any building where the lender may reasonably believe the collateral may be situated (whether or not you or any other person is present) or where you are for the purpose of searching for and seizing the collateral. The lender may use the borrower's chattels to gain access to or remove the collateral. The lender shall not be liable in any way to you or to any third party for any damage or loss which occurs in the process of entry into any premises or during or as a result of the seizure and or sale of the collateral and you will indemnify the lender against such damage or loss. On seizure, (or without seizure if seizure is not necessary in order to sell the collateral or if the collateral is otherwise in the possession of the lender) the lender may sell the collateral by auction or otherwise in any manner and in all respects (including, without restricting the generality of the power, the right to buy in, give credit and allow payment over time) as if the lender were the unencumbered owner subject to any applicable statutory obligations. You will do everything necessary to enable the lender to effect (and if applicable to register and otherwise publicly record) the sale, including the signing of all necessary transfers, assignments and other documents and including the make of any necessary decisions or resolutions. On such sale the receipt of the lender or its agent will be sufficient discharge to the purchaser for the purchase money and no purchaser shall be bound to investigate the propriety or regularity of any such sale or be affected by any notice express or constructive that such sale is improper or irregular. The lender is not obliged to account for the proceeds.

Purpose

- 41. If you are borrowing money from the lender for any purpose, you must apply the money to that purpose and the lender may pay the money directly to the seller of any property if a purpose of the loan is that purchase. The lender may impose such conditions on the payment or on the application of the money as it sees necessary to protect any security interest it may have or to ensure that the loan is applied in accordance with your advice to the lender.
