If the lender repossesses and sells the secured property but the proceeds of sale do not cover the full amount you owe the lender, you may continue to owe the lender money. It will be a default under this contract if you allow someone other than the lender to create a security interest over the collateral or the land, and the lender can then carry out the actions described in the terms and conditions (including repossessing and selling the collateral or the land).

KEY FEATURES OF THIS GUARANTEE

Before signing this guarantee, please note the following:

- 1 Each guarantor is personally liable (jointly and severally) to pay the total amount owing and to carry out the obligations in the Agreement. The lender may take action against a guarantor to recover all or any part of the guaranteed money without first taking action against the borrower or any other guarantor.
- 2 Each guarantor remains liable as a guarantor even if their liability has increased as a result of actions or omissions of the borrower without their knowledge or consent and even if the guaranteed money is unenforceable against the borrower or any other guarantor.
- 3 Each guarantor's right as a guarantor to claim for contribution or reimbursement from the borrower or any other guarantor will be limited until the lender receives the guaranteed money in full.
- 5 If any guarantor provides personal property (e.g. a vehicle) as security, the guarantor gives important undertakings in relation to that property under this guarantee. That personal property may be repossessed (if the lender does not already hold it) and sold to pay any amount secured by that security.
- 6 If any guarantor agrees to provide land as security, the lender may lodge a caveat against the title to that land and may also register a mortgage. The terms that will apply to any mortgage that may be registered in favour of the lender over that land are provided together with this guarantee and, under any such mortgage, the lender may sell that land to pay any amount secured by that mortgage. A caveat will prevent the guarantor dealing with the land (for instance, selling or mortgaging the land) without the lender's prior written consent.
- 7 It is strongly recommended that each guarantor obtains independent legal advice as to their obligations as a guarantor and the lender's rights contained in the Agreement, this guarantee and any related mortgage or other security document. Each guarantor can take the time to obtain advice before signing.

Each reference to this guarantee, the Agreement or any other document includes that document as varied or replaced at any time.

Guarantee

2 In consideration of the lender making the loan under the Agreement to the borrower, the guarantor:

- acknowledges that the Agreement requires the borrower to make the payments required under the Agreement from time to time and to pay the total amount owing in full (the guaranteed money); and

- absolutely, unconditionally and irrevocably guarantees to the lender payment of the guaranteed money and the performance of the borrower’s obligations under the Agreement; and
- acknowledges that if the guarantor owns the collateral and/or land specified in this guarantee, the guarantor has agreed to grant a security interest and/or mortgage in that property to the lender (meaning that the lender may become entitled to repossess and sell that property).

3 The guarantor, on demand by the lender, is liable for the payment of the guaranteed money and for the performance of the terms of the Agreement as if the guarantor were a principal debtor to the lender (save that any statutory clauses for the benefit of a principal debtor only shall not be interpreted for the benefit of the guarantor) and not as a surety. As a separate obligation, the guarantor absolutely, unconditionally and irrevocably indemnifies the lender in respect of any failure by the borrower(s) to pay all or any part of the guaranteed money or perform the borrower(s)’ obligations under the Agreement. The lender may demand payment from the guarantor without first enforcing payment against the borrower(s).

4 The guarantor shall not be released from its obligations under this guarantee nor have its liability reduced by any lack of legal capacity or other reason which would result in the Agreement not being enforceable against, or any moneys not being recoverable from, the borrower(s) or (if there is more than one guarantor) from another guarantor. No waiver, giving of time, indulgence, compromise, failure or delay in exercising remedies, increase in the guaranteed money, amendment of the Agreement, variation of security or failure to register or validly register any mortgage of land or personal property security interest or other dealings by the lender with the borrower(s) or (if there are two or more guarantors) with any other guarantor nor the bankruptcy of the borrower(s) shall release the guarantor from any obligation or affect its liability to pay any sum. The lender will have no liability to the guarantor in respect of any of these matters or things, even if the guarantor’s rights have been prejudiced as a result. Without prejudice to paragraph 2 of this guarantee, the guarantor waives all defences which might be available to a surety.

5 Until the lender has received full payment of the guaranteed money (and subject to such payments being valid and not subject to claw-back by a liquidator or otherwise), the guarantor may not (i) take, accept or hold any guarantee or security interest from the borrower(s) or any other guarantor (if applicable); (ii) take steps to recover (whether directly, or by set-off, counterclaim or otherwise), accept money or other property, or exercise or enforce rights in respect of amounts the borrower(s) or any other guarantor (if applicable) owed to the guarantor; or (iii) take, accept, hold or claim any right to contribution, reimbursement or indemnity from the borrower(s) or any other guarantor (if applicable).

- 6 Subject to paragraph 9 of this guarantee, the guarantor's rights of subrogation and of indemnity against the borrower(s) and (if there are two or more guarantors) contribution against any other guarantor shall not arise until the lender has received payment in full of the guaranteed money and all the borrower(s)' obligations under the Agreement have been performed.
- 7 This guarantee is for the benefit of, and may be enforced by, any person for the time being entitled to payments of the guaranteed money and an assignment of the lender's rights under the Agreement shall not release the guarantor from liability.
- 8 The guarantor shall pay the guaranteed money to the lender upon demand without deduction or withholding for any purpose whether by way of set-off, counter-claim or otherwise.
- 9 If any payment from the borrower(s) is set aside or avoided for any reason whether by statute or otherwise then (i) such payment shall be deemed not to have been made; (ii) the liability and obligations of the guarantor shall be the same as if no such payment had been made; and (iii) if this guarantee or any security provided by the guarantor has been released or discharged, the guarantor shall notwithstanding be liable for such payment.
- 10 The guarantor will pay to the lender all legal costs (calculated as between solicitor and own client) and other costs, fees and charges howsoever incurred by the lender in recovering (or attempting to recover) payment of any monies due whether from the borrower(s) or the guarantor.
- 11 The lender shall not be bound to dispute any claim by the Official Assignee in the event of the borrower(s)' bankruptcy, entry into the No Asset Procedure or becoming subject to a Summary Instalment Order under the Insolvency Act 2006.
- 12 This guarantee shall continue in force notwithstanding that the borrower(s) may not be in debt or may be in credit from time to time and shall remain in force until discharged in writing by the lender. The lender may delay providing a release or discharge until satisfied that any payment is unlikely to be made void but in any event any release or discharge shall be conditional on no payment to the lender subsequently being avoided or set aside on the liquidation or bankruptcy of the borrower(s).
- 13 This guarantee is in addition to, and enforceable independently of any other guarantee, security or other agreement in favour of the lender.

Security interest

- 14 If the guarantor is shown as the owner of collateral on the front page of this guarantee under the heading SECURITY, the guarantor grants to the lender a security interest over the relevant collateral. Each security interest granted by the guarantor secures payment to the lender of the guaranteed money and also secures the guarantor's performance of all other terms of this guarantee. The guarantor promises to the lender that the guarantor owns the relevant collateral and that there is no security interest in the relevant collateral other than that granted by this guarantee which the guarantor has not disclosed in writing to the lender prior to signing this guarantee.
- 15 If the guarantor is shown as the owner of land on the front page of this guarantee under the heading SECURITY, the guarantor grants to the lender a charge over the land and agrees (if required by the lender at any time) to execute in favour of the lender and at the cost of the guarantor a registrable mortgage over that land. Such a mortgage shall be in an all obligations form published by the Auckland District Law Society so as to incorporate memorandum number 2011/4301 or, at the lender's option, any form to the same or similar effect reasonably required by the lender and the terms of the relevant memorandum shall be incorporated into this guarantee and the priority figure for the purposes of section 92(1) of the Property Law Act 2007 shall be (a) twice the total amount of payments shown in the PAYMENTS section of the Agreement's disclosure statement plus interest or (b) twice the total advances specified under the Agreement plus $50,000 plus interest whichever is the greater or such lesser amount as the lender may decide (acting reasonably). The mortgage will secure payment to the lender of the guaranteed money and also secures the guarantor's performance of all other terms of this guarantee. The lender may choose not to register a mortgage but may choose to register a caveat. A caveat will prevent the guarantor dealing with the land (for instance, selling or mortgaging the land) without the lender's prior written consent.
- 16 The guarantor must:
 - store any collateral which is goods at the guarantor's address shown in this guarantee or at the most recent address provided by the guarantor under clause 25 and in any event the guarantor may not move any collateral goods from one address to another while there is any default under the Agreement or this guarantee without the written consent of the lender. The guarantor must not allow any collateral goods to

- be stored elsewhere nor any collateral to be taken out of New Zealand;
- care for and maintain collateral in good saleable condition and comply with any laws relating to its ownership and use;
 - not use any collateral in any dangerous or illegal activity or for any purpose for which it was not intended;
 - if any collateral is a motor vehicle, repair damage to panels, bumper lights, windows and other exterior and interior surfaces and paint work when such damage occurs and ensure that the vehicle is at all times registered and not only has a warrant of fitness but is in a condition that will enable a warrant of fitness to be issued for it; and
 - not use any collateral motor vehicle or motor boat for motor sport activity such as (without limitation) racing, rallying, speed or time trials or (and in particular) so that any driver or owner of a collateral motor vehicle receives a written caution under section 129B of the Sentencing Act 2002.
- 17 If the guarantor obtains consumer goods in future and those consumer goods are replacements for consumer goods specifically identified in this guarantee as collateral, the guarantor must appropriate those goods to the lender's security interest and must provide any serial numbers for those goods as may be necessary to enable or assist registration.
- 18 The guarantor must not:
- do anything or allow anything to happen which may impair, challenge or undermine the guarantor's ownership of collateral or the lender's security interest in collateral;
 - grant any other security interest over collateral nor allow any lien to be created over it nor dispose of nor allow the disposal of collateral by sale or gift or lease or in any other way nor cause nor allow collateral to be taken out of the possession of the guarantor who owns it, nor destroyed, damaged, endangered, disassembled, removed from the place where the guarantor is required to keep it nor concealed from the lender; or
 - obtain any personalised registration plate on any collateral motor vehicle nor otherwise alter or remove any collateral serial number unless the guarantor first obtain the lender's consent in writing,
- and in any event, if any of these acts or omissions occur, the guarantor must immediately advise the lender in writing.
- 19 The lender may take possession of the collateral for the purposes of perfecting its security interest under the PPSA.
- 20 The guarantor must insure or procure the insurance of the collateral to its full insurable value with a reputable insurer and keep them insured against fire, accident, theft, flood and storm (and any other risks as the lender may require) both in the names of the lender and in the names of the owners for the lender's and the owners' respective interests, with all payments, in the event of a claim, to be made to the lender (and the lender will account to the guarantor for any amount received by it in excess of the guaranteed money or otherwise payable by the guarantor). The guarantor must not do or allow any act or omission which causes the insurance to be invalidated or cancelled or which may cause the insurer to refuse payment. The guarantor must provide premium receipts and an insurance company certificate of the insurance if required by the lender. The lender may apply the proceeds in repayment of the guaranteed money even though it has not yet fallen due.
- 21 The guarantor must not use any collateral for any criminal purpose including, without limitation, the commission of an offence under the Misuse of Drugs Act 1975 or any replacement Act.
- 22 The guarantor waives the guarantor's right to receive a verification statement following registration of any security interest and if any of the collateral is not consumer goods, none of sections 133 of the PPSA will apply to any dealings with that collateral under this guarantee and the guarantor waive any rights with respect to that collateral under sections 116, 120(2), 121, 125 (if the debtor is in possession), 127, 129 and 131 of the PPSA.
- 23 The guarantor agrees that the lender may, on behalf of the guarantor, take any steps (including making any payments) that the lender reasonably considers necessary to arrange or maintain insurance as required under or in connection with this guarantee, or to pay all rates, levies and charges relating to any land or collateral, if the guarantor has failed to do so.
- 24 The guarantor must maintain a landline or cellular telephone connection
- 25 The guarantor must not change their name, physical or email address or their landline or cellular telephone number without first giving the lender five working days written notice of their intention to do so and of the replacement name, address or landline or cellular telephone number. The lender may write to the guarantor at the last address provided by the guarantor to the lender.
- 26 If the guarantor defaults under any obligation under this guarantee or any related mortgage or other security document, then (subject to applicable law):

- The lender may, by notice to the guarantor, declare the guaranteed money to be due and payable immediately.
- The security given under this guarantee will become immediately enforceable (see clause 27 below), and the lender also has all other rights given to the lender by law and in this guarantee, the Agreement or any other agreement (including any mortgage or other security document).

27 Following a default under this guarantee, the lender may, subject at all times to applicable law:

- take possession of the collateral and for such purposes the guarantor irrevocably gives to the lender the right and licence for its agents to enter any premises where the lender may reasonably believe the collateral may be situated (whether or not the guarantor or any other person is present);
- sell the collateral by auction or otherwise in any manner and in all respects (including, without restricting the generality of the power, the right to buy in, give credit and allow payment over time) as if the lender were the unencumbered owner; and
- exercise any other rights as if the lender were the owner of the collateral, and the guarantor will do everything necessary to enable the lender to effect (and if applicable to register and otherwise publicly record) the sale, including the signing of all necessary transfers, assignments and other documents and including the make of any necessary decisions or resolutions. On such sale the receipt of the lender or its agent will be sufficient discharge to the purchaser for the purchase money and no purchaser shall be bound to investigate the propriety or regularity of any such sale or be affected by any notice express or constructive that such sale is improper or irregular.

General

28 Where the Agreement is signed or is intended to be signed by more than one person as guarantor, the expression "the guarantor" includes all such persons and the liability of the guarantor under this guarantee is the joint and several liability of such persons notwithstanding the failure of any other guarantor to sign. Any demand made by the lender to any one or more of the persons so jointly and severally bound is deemed to be a demand made to all such persons.

29 The guarantor and the lender consent to using, providing and accepting information in electronic form in accordance with Part 4 of the Contract and Commercial Law Act 2017. The guarantor further consents to accessing this guarantee plus any other agreements between the guarantor and the lender by electronic means (including, subject to the requirements of the CCCFA and other applicable law, the guarantor's linking to the lender's website or otherwise obtaining the information by means of the Internet).

30 The guarantor irrevocably authorises any person to provide the lender with such information about the guarantor and the guarantor's affairs as the lender may request as part of its administration and enforcement of this guarantee and further irrevocably authorise the lender to hold all information it so obtains and obtains from the guarantor and use it (which may include providing it to any third party including the borrower and any other guarantor) for the purposes of such administration and enforcement and for supplying the borrower and the guarantor with information about services offered by the lender. Any such information will be collected, used, stored and disclosed in accordance with the lender's privacy policy and privacy waiver made available to the guarantor. The guarantor must provide the lender with ongoing information and any associated document requested by the lender relating to the guarantor's financial status or to any collateral or land.

31 To the extent allowed by law, the lender may from time to time without notice set off against any claim or demand which the guarantor may have any debt owed by the guarantor or claim or demand which the lender may have against the guarantor.

32 The lender may appropriate any payment received from the guarantor or money which is proceeds of the sale of any collateral or land against any debt secured by that collateral in any manner that the lender may reasonably decide, notwithstanding any appropriation the guarantor claims to have made.

33 No amendment to this guarantee shall have any effect unless in writing and signed by the guarantor and a manager of the lender. The lender may exercise all or any right, power or remedy at any time and failure to do or delay in doing so shall not constitute a waiver unless the lender grants it in writing and a continuous breach shall only be waived if the lender specifies that the waiver is continuous. Waiver of one right power or remedy is not waiver of another.

34 The guarantor agrees that the lender may assign or transfer any of its rights or obligations under this guarantee without the guarantor's further specific consent (and, to the fullest extent permitted by law, without notice) at any time, provided such assignment is not likely to cause the guarantor detriment. The guarantor may not assign or transfer any of the guarantor's rights or obligations under this guarantee without our prior written consent.

35 This guarantee is governed by New Zealand law and the parties irrevocably submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the New Zealand courts.

Purpose

- 4 If you are borrowing money from the lender for any purpose advised to the lender, you must apply the money to that purpose and the lender may pay the money directly to the seller of any property if a purpose of this agreement is that purchase. The lender may impose such conditions on the payment or on the application of the money as it sees necessary (acting reasonably) to protect any security interest it may have or to ensure that the loan is applied in accordance with your advice to the lender.

Payments

- 5 You must make all payments required in accordance with the terms of this agreement when due without any deduction or withholding for any purpose whether by way of set-off or counter-claim or otherwise and in such manner as the lender requires (acting reasonably).
- 6 You must pay to the lender when due:
 - 6.1 on each payment date, the relevant amount shown in the PAYMENTS section of the disclosure statement;
 - 6.2 the lender's credit fees shown in the CREDIT FEES section of the disclosure statement as and when due;
 - 6.3 any early repayment fee provided for in the FULL PREPAYMENT section of the disclosure statement; and
 - 6.4 the lender's default fees and default interest shown in the DEFAULT INTEREST CHARGES AND DEFAULT FEES section of the disclosure statement as and when due; and

Early repayment

- 7 You may repay the total amount owing in full before it is due. However, you must also pay the lender the administrative costs arising from the full prepayment. The lender may also charge you a fee representing a reasonable estimate of its loss arising from the full prepayment. The lender may be required to deduct from the amount required for full prepayment a proportionate rebate in respect of any relevant credit-related insurance or waivers. The lender's method of calculating its loss is set out in the "FULL PREPAYMENT" section of the disclosure statement.

- 8 If you make any part prepayment the lender may accept the part prepayment and credit it in accordance with the schedule of payments showing in the PAYMENTS section of the disclosure statement. The lender may also decline to accept any part prepayment but, if it accepts it, the lender may charge you administrative costs associated with the part prepayment. These costs are set out in the disclosure statement in the "CREDIT FEES" section.

Grant of security interest in collateral

- 9 If you are shown as the owner of collateral in the WHAT COULD HAPPEN IF YOU FAIL TO MEET YOUR COMMITMENTS? section of the disclosure statement, you grant to the lender a security interest over the relevant collateral. Each security interest granted by you secures payment to the lender of the total amount owing and also secures your performance of all other terms of this agreement. You promise to the lender that you own the relevant collateral and that there is no security interest in the relevant collateral other than that granted by this agreement which you have not disclosed in writing to the lender prior to signing this agreement.

Agreement to mortgage land

- 10 If you are shown as the owner of land in the WHAT COULD HAPPEN IF YOU FAIL TO MEET YOUR COMMITMENTS? section of the disclosure statement, you grant us a charge over the land and agree (if required by the lender at any time) to execute in favour of the lender and at the cost of the borrowers a registrable mortgage over that land. Such a mortgage shall be in an all obligations form published by the Auckland District Law Society so as to incorporate memorandum number 2011/4301 or, at the lender's option, any form to the same or similar effect reasonably required by the lender and the terms of the relevant memorandum shall be incorporated into this agreement and the priority figure for the purposes of section 92(1) of the Property Law Act 2007 shall be (a) twice the total amount of payments shown in the PAYMENTS section of the disclosure statement plus interest or (b) twice the total advances plus $50,000 plus interest whichever is the greater or such lesser amount as the lender may decide. The mortgage will secure payment of the total amount owing and the performance of all other terms of this agreement. The lender may choose not to register a mortgage but may choose to register a caveat.

Security Interest in Collateral

- 11 You must:
 - 11.1 store any collateral which is goods at the address shown as that of its owner in the disclosure statement or at the most recent address provided by you under clause 20 and in any event you may not move any collateral goods from one address to another while you are in default without the written consent of the lender.  - 13.3 obtain any personalised registration plate on any collateral motor vehicle nor otherwise alter or remove any collateral serial number unless you first obtain the lender's consent in writing,
- and in any event, if any of these acts or omissions occur, you must immediately advise the lender in writing.
- 14 The lender may take possession of the collateral for the purposes of perfecting its security interest under the PPSA.
- 15 You must insure or procure the insurance of the collateral to its full insurable value with a reputable insurer and keep them insured against fire, accident, theft, flood and storm (and any other risks as the lender may require) both in the names of the lender and in the names of the owners for the lender's and the owners' respective interests, with all payments, in the event of a claim, to be made to the lender (and the lender will account to you for any amount received by it in excess of the total amount owing or otherwise payable by you). You must not do or allow any act or omission which causes the insurance to be invalidated or cancelled or which may cause the insurer to refuse payment. You must provide premium receipts and an insurance company certificate of the insurance if required by the lender. The lender may apply the proceeds in repayment of the total amount owing even though it has not yet fallen due.

- 16 You must not use any collateral for any criminal purpose including, without limitation, the commission of an offence under the Misuse of Drugs Act 1975 or any replacement Act.
- 17 You waive your right to receive a verification statement following registration of any security interest and if any of the collateral is not consumer goods, none of sections 133 of the PPSA will apply to any dealings with that collateral under this agreement and you waive any rights with respect to that collateral under sections 116, 120(2), 121, 125 (if the debtor is in possession), 127, 129 and 131 of the PPSA.

Undertakings

- 18 You must maintain a landline or cellular telephone connection
- 19 You must not change your name, physical or email address or your landline or cellular telephone number without first giving the lender five working days written notice of your intention to do so and of the replacement name, address or landline or cellular telephone number. The lender may write to you at the last address provided by you to us.

Default

- 20 If:
- 20.1 you commit any act of bankruptcy, enter into the No Asset Procedure or without the lender's consent become subject to a summary instalment order;
 - 20.2 any chattels included in the collateral are at risk, as defined in section 83E of the CCCFA;
 - 20.3 you breach clause 14 or clause 15 of this agreement;

it will be a default under this agreement and (subject to applicable law, including our obligations as a responsible lender):

20.6 The lender may, by notice to you, declare the total amount owing to be due and payable to the lender immediately. The lender may call up that money even although the time for payment has not yet been reached.

20.7 The security given under this agreement will become immediately enforceable (see clause 22 below), and the lender also has all other rights given to us by law and in this agreement or any other agreement (including any mortgage or other security document).

21 In the event of a default in payment under this agreement and while the default continues, you shall pay to the lender default interest on the due but unpaid amount. However, we will not charge you default interest on any amount that has become payable early because of non-payment of any other amount or because of an event that is not a payment default. Default interest shall compound Weekly. This is further described in the DEFAULT INTEREST CHARGES AND DEFAULT FEES section of the disclosure statement.

Repossession and sale of collateral

22 Following a default under this agreement, the lender may, subject at all times to applicable law:

22.1 take possession of the collateral and for such purposes you irrevocably give to the lender the right and licence for its agents to enter any premises where the lender may reasonably believe the collateral may be situated (whether or not you or any other person is present);

22.2 sell the collateral by auction or otherwise in any manner and in all respects (including, without restricting the generality of the power, the right to buy in, give credit and allow payment over time) as if the lender were the unencumbered owner; and

and you will do everything necessary to enable the lender to effect (and if applicable to register and otherwise publicly record) the sale, including the signing of all necessary transfers, assignments and other documents and including the make of any necessary decisions or resolutions. On such sale the receipt of the lender or its agent will be sufficient discharge to the purchaser for the purchase money and no purchaser shall be bound to investigate the propriety or regularity of any such sale or be affected by any notice express or constructive that such sale is improper or irregular.

Electronic communications

23 You and the lender consent to using, providing and accepting information in electronic form in accordance with Part 4 of the Contract and Commercial Law Act 2017. You further consent to accessing the disclosure statement and operative terms of this agreement plus any other agreements between you and the lender by electronic means (including, subject to the requirements of the CCCFA and other applicable law, your linking to the lender's website or otherwise obtaining the information by means of the Internet).

No discharge

24 You shall not be released from your obligations under this agreement or have your liability reduced by any lack of legal capacity or other reason which would result in this agreement not being enforceable against or any moneys not being recoverable from any other person nor by virtue of any security becoming all or partly void or unenforceable for any reason whatsoever.

Further information

25 You irrevocably authorise any person to provide the lender with such information about you and your affairs as the lender may request as part of its administration and enforcement of this agreement and further irrevocably authorise the lender to hold all information it so obtains and obtains from you and use it (which may include providing it to any third party including any guarantor) for the purposes of such administration and enforcement and for supplying you and the guarantor with information about services offered by lender. Any such information will be collected, used, stored and disclosed in accordance with the lender's privacy policy and privacy waiver made available to you. You must provide the lender with ongoing information and any associated document requested by the lender relating to your financial status or to any collateral or land.

2. Where there is more than one Vehicle listed as security under your Loan Agreement, all Vehicles will be eligible under the GAP Waiver but we will accept only one valid GAP Waiver claim throughout the term of your GAP Waiver Agreement.

The fees that will be payable by you for the GAP Waiver are set out in your Application Form.
